NATHON CULTURAL TOURISM COMMUNITY, Nakhon Phanom

Na Thon is a sleepy yet culture-packed community in Thailand's Northeastern region, which is locally known as "Isaan". Besides being awarded for their community-based travel services, the "Thai Guan" people living here take pride in their heritage, which is comprised of three thriving industries, where the women weave and men forge iron after the annual rice harvesting season is over. During your visit, be sure to check out Thon's traditional salt spa and try other activities, like weaving fishing traps and equipment, learning about integrated farming and helping out with food preservation.
